Dear Mr. van der Biezen,

Re: Admission to the List of Counsel

On behalf of the Registrar of the International Criminal Court, I am pleased to inform you that, after review of your application for inclusion in the list of counsel, you meet the requirements set forth in Rule 22 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence and Regulation 67 of the Regulations of the Court.

I hereby grant your request to be included in the list of counsel.

Please note that for all intents and purposes, your inclusion to the list signifies that you have met the qualifications necessary to be included in a list, maintained by the Registry, of counsel who are eligible for appointment and who may be appointed to represent suspects/accused or victims in the future. As such, your inclusion to the list of counsel in no way denotes an actual appointment or assignment to represent suspects/accused or victims before the Court.

I hope that the above will assist you in any representations or advertising you may engage in as part of your practice. In this regard, I remind you of your obligations under Article 10(a) of the ICC's Code of Professional Conduct for Counsel, and similar provisions contained in your applicable domestic code/rules of professional conduct.

Yours sincerely,

Esteban Peralta Losilla
